

Free Urban Agricultural Workshops!

Want to garden more sustainably?

Want to become an urban farmer?

Want to be a better environmental steward?

Durham Soil & Water invites you to join us for a series of urban agriculture and conservation training workshops from October through June. All workshops are free and include a complimentary breakfast or lunch for attendees that RSVP in advance.

Thursday, October 20th: Rain Water Harvesting & Conservation Irrigation
8am to 10am at the Bull City Cool Food Hub

Thursday, November 10th: Nutrient Management, Buffers & Filter Strips
8am to 10am at the Durham Public School Hub Farm

Thursday, January 19th: Beginning or Transitioning to a Produce Operation
8am to 10am at the Durham Public School Hub Farm

Thursday, February 9th: Local Buyer Discussion Panel & Mixer
8am to 10am at the Bull City Cool Food Hub

Thursday, March 16th: Pollinators & Native Species
8am to 10am at the Durham Public School Hub Farm

Thursday, May 18th: Integrated Pest Management
8am to 10am at the Bull City Cool Food Hub

Thursday, June 29th: Backyard Rain Gardens & Wetlands
9am to 1pm at the Durham Public School Hub Farm

For more details or to RSVP, please email Elizabeth Zander at ezander@dconc.gov

These trainings are made possible through funding received from the National Association of Conservation Districts and the Durham Farmland Protection Advisory Board.